

November 19th, 2015

Transgender Day of Remembrance

Join us for a walk of Remembrance & Vigil

5:30 PM Lowell Community Health Center

161 Jackson Street

6:10 PM Rally at City Hall

7:00 PM Walk back to Lowell Community
Health Center

Join us as we commemorate lives lost to hatred and fear

Thursday 5:30PM - 8:00PM

Sponsored by:

Greater Lowell Health Alliance

Cultural Competence Task Force

LGBTQ Sub Committee

International Transgender Day of Remembrance (TDOR) happens every November. It's a day to remember those who have been killed as a result of anti-transgender violence. TDOR acts to bring community and global attention to the continued violence endured by the transgender community.

