

A “May is Mental Health Month” Event

Being and Parenting a Depressed and Suicidal Child: One Family’s Story

by Authors Patricia Larsted and Her Father Bob

- Hear Patricia Larsted discuss her battle with anxiety, depression, bipolar, obsessive-compulsive, and schizoaffective disorders.
- Hear her father Bob Larsted discuss his own journey to support and advocate for Patricia.
- Learn how Patricia survived – and ultimately thrived – while navigating the minefield of school, family, and today’s healthcare system.
- Appreciate their different perspectives and how they share their journeys with all of us through their writing.
